PRESS RELEASE - 21 SEPTEMBER 2005

COMPLAINT TO THE BBC ADDRESSED PROMPTLY!

The following complaint was made this afternoon to the BBC, about its website content.

<http://news.bbc.co.uk/1/hi/scotland/4260324.stm> has links to the websites of eight out the ten candidates standing in the Livingston by-election. I do not know whether the independent candidate standing has a website, but the Alliance For Change does, yet there is no link to it on the page mentioned. In fairness, there obviously should be.

An identical complaint was made about <http://news.bbc.co.uk/1/low/scotland/4260324.stm>.

The complaints were duplicated by telephone, and the BBC member of staff promised to seek to ensure that the complaint was processed promptly. He phoned back within 15 minutes to tell me that the BBC website team had agreed to rectify the omission, but was unable to say when this would be accomplished.

All credit to the BBC, on this occasion, for responding promptly to a complaint of bias during an election period. This is a first, in the experience of AllianceForChange candidates.
